

Robert W. Chesner, Jr.

Curriculum Vitae

Bob Chesner leads the firm's insurance and investment oversight practice. Drawing on his extensive expertise and experience as a finance and insurance executive, Bob assists high net worth individuals and family offices in the design and implementation of domestic and international life insurance and annuity structures, consults on their property, casualty, and liability needs, and oversees the marketing and development of the firm's insurance practice. He also consults with firm clients about the implementation, reporting, and analysis aspects of their investment portfolios as well as all other non-investment risk management matters. Bob serves as President of Edgewater Consulting Group, Ltd., a GFGR affiliate that provides a comprehensive post-sale service platform to insurance professionals in the private placement life and annuity marketplace. However, neither GFGR nor Edgewater Consulting Group, Ltd. is an insurance broker or registered investment advisor.

Bob is also the firm's Chief Operating Officer. In this role, he leads and oversees all of the operational, administrative, and financial functions of the firm.

Bob is a frequent speaker on life insurance matters and is quoted regularly in major financial publications. Prior to joining GFGR in 2007, Bob was Vice President of AIG Global High Net Worth Markets, a division of AIG Worldwide Life Insurance, a subsidiary of American International Group, Inc. (AIG). Bob directed distribution and marketing activities in the high net worth marketplace for AIG and managed its COLI/BOLI market strategy, implementation, product development, and marketing. Bob began his career at KPMG Peat Marwick, working exclusively in the insurance industry, including positions at Universal Underwriters Insurance Company, and New York Life. Bob co-authored, with Leslie Giordani, Bloomberg BNA's Tax Management Portfolio 870, 1st, "Private Placement Life Insurance and Annuities."
